

Personal Construct
Psychology (PCP)
CPD study sessions
2021

Coventry Constructivist Centre

Low cost CPD in Personal Construct Psychology. Sessions are delivered in a seminar format, with some paired or small group discussions and exercises, depending upon the facilitator and session style.

Dates and times: All sessions are 2-4pm

Friday 17th September 2021

Abigail Cohman and Cleo Timney, trainee educational psychologists will present An Introduction to the Children's Exploratory Drawings, their new PCP based tool for use with children and young people. This will be followed by discussion and small group workshops to explore the drawings and how you might use them within your work.

Thursday 2nd December 2021

Selfcare: Looking after yourself using PCP. Find ways to support yourself using PCP techniques. Facilitator tbc.

Venue: Zoom

Cost: £5

Included: Digital copies of presentations

Find out more: Details of the Coventry Constructivist Centre and our courses can be found at www.covpcp.com.

To book a place, email Sally Robbins: sally@covpcp.com

When your place is confirmed, you will need to pay the fee to secure your place, and to provide details of your name, professional role, personal email address (for emergency contact in case of a problem before or during the course). Places are allocated on a first come, first served basis. In the event that there are insufficient numbers to proceed with the course, all monies will be refunded. Please note that the fee cannot be refunded for failure to attend once a place is reserved.