

Coventry
Constructivist
Centre

Personal Construct Psychology (PCP) Quarterly Study Sessions 2024

Low cost CPD in Personal Construct Psychology. Sessions are delivered in a seminar format, with a presentation, some paired or small group discussions and exercises, and occasionally some preliminary work.

Dates and times: All sessions run from 2-4pm UK time
Please log on at 1.50pm in case of a Zoom update etc and so we can start at 2pm.

Friday 12th April The Lying Game - try out this technique in the session

Friday 21st June The client or case that changed me or my practice

Friday 13th September Making sense of refusing - to follow advice, to go somewhere, or to try something new

Friday 6th December Cathy Sparkes - topic tbc

Venue: Zoom

Cost: £5

Included: Digital copies of presentations

Find out more: Details of the Coventry Constructivist Centre and our courses can be found at www.covpcp.com.

To book a place, email Sally Robbins: sally@covpcp.com

When your place is confirmed, you will need to pay the fee to secure your booking, and to provide details of your name, professional role, and a personal email address. Some organisations might block emails with attachments or hyperlinks so a personal email is often more reliable. Places are allocated on a first come, first served basis. In the event that there are insufficient numbers to proceed with the session, all monies will be refunded. Please note that the fee cannot be refunded for failure to attend once a place is reserved.

NOTE: The sessions are designed for people who have either followed a foundation course or had PCP teaching as part of their studies because a basic knowledge of the theory will be assumed.

Photo by Joshua Hibbert on Unsplash